College students have been removed from the prayer list for the summer.

Local visitors interested in learning about our church and its programs are encouraged to stop at the Welcome Center in the narthex to pick up a visitor bag.

Today's altar flowers were donated by Willa Jean Dust in memory of Everett Dust.

Baptized today during the 11:00 service are Cesar Herrera, Noah Richard York, and Amanda Mary York, children of Andrew York and Anastacia Martinez, grandchildren of Dr. Richard and Cheryl York. We welcome these children into the family of God!

The Department of Human Services in Mason County refers qualified families to the Salvation Army to supply their school-aged children with school supplies. Church Women United in our county makes these collections each year through the churches. Once again we are asking for the following school items to be placed in a bin at the front entryway: crayons, number 2 pencils, dry erase markers, glue bottles, boxes of tissue, glue sticks, scissors, two-pocket folders, pencil boxes, wide ruled spiral bound notebooks, pencil sharpeners, black Sharpies, highlighters, sticky notes, college ruled notebooks, protractors, rulers, five-subject notebooks, and backpacks. New this year are headphones (no ear buds) and optional styluses for iPads. Take this list with you as you shop to find items you wish to contribute. Our church has always been a great contributor for the needy children. If you would prefer to make a monetary gift for school supplies, please make checks payable to United Methodist Women (UMW) and put "School Supplies" on the memo line. All school supplies and monetary donations are due today. Thanks. Janelle Schade, our church rep to CWU

Mason County Church Women United will hold their Annual Fundraising Salad Buffet Wednesday, August 17 from 11:00 am to 1:00 pm. The buffet will be at the Seventh-Day Adventist Fellowship Hall at 305 N. Lavinia Street, located behind the Sheriff's Office. The cost is $7.00. You can buy tickets ahead of time from Janelle Schade (843-8131) or at the door. The meal is open to all. Many enjoy visiting with others at this buffet. Janelle Schade, UMCL Rep for Church Women United

From Karen Genson, United Methodist Women Chairperson:

- All ladies of the church are invited to come and enjoy the annual UMW Potluck Picnic. Jane Clark has once again graciously invited us to her home at noon on Monday, August 15. Don't miss the delicious food and wonderful fellowship. We will also have a short business meeting for election of officers. If you need directions to Jane's home, Jane can provide those. Call Karen Genson (843-2482) if you would like to arrange to ride with someone. No RSVP necessary--just come and enjoy!
- The UMW Bazaar date (October 29) is approaching fast. I hope you are making items that you plan to donate for sale. We are looking for your ideas for items that the ladies can make that will sell well. We would like to have a couple workshop days to work together on making items. Call Karen Genson (843-2482) if you have project ideas or would like to help make items at a work day. Handmade Christmas ornaments were one item mentioned as a possibility-- any ideas out there for Christmas ornaments or other items?

A big thank you to Becky, Lew, the choirs, and others who made the Patriotic Concert so enjoyable and successful. We appreciated you all. Lon Wolven

The Power of Interfaith Dialogue is the topic of three free events coming to Alpena, Michigan on Thursday, September 22. Pastor Don Mackenzie, Rabbi Ted Falcon and Imam Jamal Rahman, known as the Interfaith Amigos, started working together after 9/11. The Amigos share why interfaith dialogue is so critically important in our world today, and how each of their traditions both support as well as hinder that deeper dialogue. For more information, see the church office bulletin board.
