Local visitors interested in learning about our church and its programs are encouraged to stop at the Welcome Center in the narthex to pick up a visitor bag.

From Karen Genson, United Methodist Women Chairperson:

The UMW Bazaar date (October 29) is approaching fast. I hope you are making items that you plan to donate for sale. We are looking for your ideas for items that the ladies can make that will sell well. We would like to have a couple workshop days to work together on making items. Call Karen Genson (843-2482) if you have project ideas or would like to help make items at a work day. Handmade Christmas ornaments were one item mentioned as a possibility-- any ideas out there for Christmas ornaments or other items?

Women's Fall Bible Study will begin Thursday, September 8 at 10:00 am. We will continue to meet in Fellowship Hall. Our study for the fall is The Twelve Disciples, a 10 week Life Guide Study, by Douglas Connelly. The goal of this study is to focus on each man and how each one was changed because of his association with Jesus. When Jesus sent these men into the world with the good news of God's grace and forgiveness, they spoke with the authority of Jesus himself. It was the writings of the apostles and their close associates that laid the foundation of the church. We can expect to grow as disciples as we study how Jesus made disciples, and we can expect to hear a new call in our lives to follow Christ with a whole heart. Books will be available at our first meeting. For more information, you may call Lynne Gohn at 843-4746. Sign up in the church office.

The Power of Interfaith Dialogue is the topic of three free events coming to Alpena, Michigan on Thursday, September 22. Pastor Don Mackenzie, Rabbi Ted Falcon and Imam Jamal Rahman, known as the Interfaith Amigos, started working together after 9/11. The Amigos share why interfaith dialogue is so critically important in our world today, and how each of their traditions both support as well as hinder that deeper dialogue. For more information, see the church office bulletin board.

Saturday, October 22 at 11:00 am is our annual Church Conference! It will be held at Ludington St. Paul United Methodist Church this year. At Church Conference, members elect next year's church leaders, hear various reports, and celebrate the year's ministry. All who attend our church have voice in church conference, but only members may vote.

Saturday, November 12 is our annual Grand Traverse District Conference, to be held this year at Traverse City Central UMC. More information on this will follow in the October and November issues of Footprints and in upcoming bulletins.
